Preschool kudos

Bay Area Parent magazine readers recently voted Lafayette's Old Firehouse School their favorite Bay Area preschool/daycare. Founded in 1996 by Dorothy Stewart, Old Firehouse offers early childhood education and day care for children four months to five years, with a curriculum modeled after the Northern Italian Reggio Emilia school. The Bay Area Parent award is the latest in a long line of kudos and media attention, including features in Parenting Magazine, the Wall Street Journal and on Lifetime TV.
